Two things:

- (I) Can someone please forward me the invites for the meetings?
- (II) Would a 10 am pre-meet work?

Who from OLA is working this? We should include OLA in the pre-meet too.

Thanks,

Just to summarize the game plan for tomorrow:

- • Jen will join the Congressional engagements tomorrow
- • There will be a prep session scheduled ahead of those engagements
- • Isa circulated a revised fact sheet for everyone's consideration.

Thank you all so much -

Hi all,

Wanted to keep you up to speed on Congressional engagement tomorrow. At 3 and 4 pm we have virtual briefings with staff from our appropriating and authorizing committees. (We may be missing a few from House Approps, but we will make them up next week if they can't make it.)

Liz, Andy and I just ran through the show flow with Jason Lamote and (b) (5)

We will be sure to get you a readout afterward.

Q Thanks. Switching gears to Title 42: The President said today that the administration would comply with whatever the courts decide. So, just to be clear, there's not a plan to fight this decision?

MS. PSAKI: That would be a decision made by the Department of Justice, but they haven't even done a formal ruling that they're considering at this point in time.

Q But there's the temporary restri- -- the TRO. So, at this point, the administration is -- doesn't have anything to announce, in terms of fighting this?

MS. PSAKI: They verbally did the TRO. They have not done, I don't believe, a more formal, written one that has been looked at or considered by the Department of Justice at this point in time.

Q Does the President disagree with this ruling?

MS. PSAKI: Again, it's the Department of Justice to look at this. The President has talked about how he would -- the authority is given to the CDC to make a decision about when the conditions exist to lift Title 42. They made that decision, and he certainly supports that. And that's why we're preparing to lift it, through the Department of Homeland Security and an interagency process.

Q But if the CDC determined, like you just said, the order was no longer necessary, then it wouldn't make sense to fight -- to not fight this, to let that just stand.

MS. PSAKI: Well, the Department of Justice would make that decision. There hasn't even been a formal issuing by the court. It's been a verbal report. They said they would need to look at that. They would make any announcement about any legal action.

Q And I just want to ask you: We just continue to hear these Democratic senators that were briefed this week. Cortez Masto was the latest. She was briefed by the administration and said that even though you've been saying there's this comprehensive plan to deal with the border after Title 42 is lifted, she has not seen a comprehensive plan. She said she did not hear a comprehensive plan on how they are going to address the surge or the resources needed to make sure we are addressing the drug trafficking across the border.

So your response to her and just, big picture, why Democrats aren't united on this?

MS. PSAKI: I can't speak for all Democrats. I can tell you that we share the frustration about how broken our immigration system is and how there need to be fixes at the border, whether that is smarter security funding or fixing the asylum processing system that's long been broken.

And we would welcome the interest of any Democrat or Republican to work with us on that effort and talk about and work for it -- work on moving forward the bill the President proposed on his first day in office.

Secretary Mayorkas -- who oversees this, of course -- has been testifying. I think he has four -- he's testifying to four committees, including the House Judiciary Committee today. And he laid out six pillars of our plan, including components that address exactly those specific pieces: how we would surge resources, personnel, transportation, medical support; how we're enhancing CBP processing; how we're administering -- administering consequences for unlawful entry; how we're bolstering the capacity of nongovernmental organizations; what we're doing to target and disrupt the transnational criminal organizations; and how we're going to deter irregular migration.

But this is not an immigration policy. This is how we're implementing the lifting of Title 42. So we need a longer-term, more comprehensive immigration reform policy. And we'd welcome any efforts to work with that with members of Congress.

Q And then on this new report that the Department of Homeland Security is setting up a Disinformation Governance Board to tackle misinformation ahead of the midterms: Secretary Mayorkas said that part of its intention was to tackle misinformation in Hispanic communities especially. Can you give us an idea of what this board is going to be doing, what their authority would look like?

MS. PSAKI: Sure, Jacqui. I really haven't dug into this exactly. I mean, we, of course, support this effort, but let me see if I can get more specifics. We know that there has been a range of disinfo out there about a range of topics -- I mean, including COVID, for example, and also elections and eligibility. But I will -- I will check and see if there's more specifics.

Q There's been some criticism of the person who's been chosen to oversee this board. She had previously called the Hunter Biden laptop a "Trump campaign product," seeming to discredit its validity - or validity of reporting surrounding that.

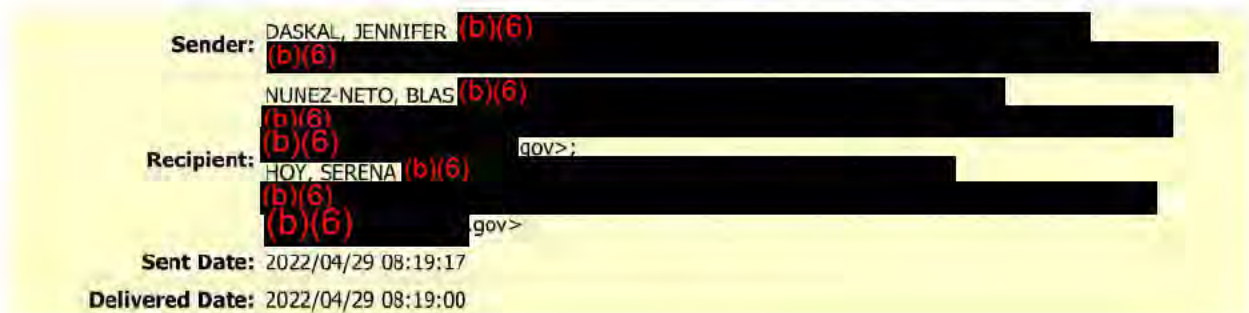

How can you assuage concerns of people who are looking at this person who's been appointed to this position and wondering if she's going to be able to accurately judge misinformation now that a lot of that reporting has been proven to be factual in some ways?

MS. PSAKI: Well, I don't have any comments on the laptop.

But what I can tell you is that it sounds like the objective of the board is to prevent disinformation and misinformation from traveling around the country in a range of communities. I'm not sure who opposes that effort, and I don't know who this individual is, so I have no comments on it specifically.

Q Her name is Nina Jankowicz. She also just recently made some polarizing comments about the Twitter -- Elon Musk's Twitter purchase. It's just getting some pushback from critics who are saying this person may not be the right choice for a board that is run by the Department of Homeland Security. Can you speak to that at all?

MS. PSAKI: I don't have any information about this individual. I can check on more information about the board.

Subject: DGB is now public!

Hello colleagues,

Hope you're all doing well; we are looking forward to reconvening for our regular Steering Group meeting on Friday afternoon.

I wanted to write to make sure everyone saw that the establishment of the Disinformation Governance Board was covered in POLITICO Playbook this morning. Now that the cat's out of the proverbial bag, we are excited to begin external engagement with industry, academia, and civil society as well as continue to push our internal agenda.

Your component heads/their schedulers should have received a request from (b)(6) who is in the process of scheduling our first full Board meeting; please ensure you work with him to find a time for this convening asap.

As always, if you have MDM related programming matters, questions, or concerns, don't hesitate to reach out.

Thanks, and see you Friday.

Subject: Scheduling DGB Discussion with CISA/NRMC

Dear Mona, Geoff, and CISA Colleagues,

I'm looking forward to our intro meeting next week! In addition to that chat, as discussed at our last DGB Steering Group Meeting, we are writing to set up a discussion with your component to discuss your MDM-related lines of effort and governance structures.

The meeting will serve several purposes:

(b) (5)

These meetings—and the DGB writ large—will not interfere with components' operational authority. Ultimately, these discussions will inform the framework of the broader governance structure we will draft, adopt, and implement over the next several months.

(b)(6) will schedule these discussions; please work with him to find a 90-minute slot over the next two weeks when we can speak to you (if your schedule allows), your program staff, and lawyers. We recognize your schedules may not allow you to stay for the duration, however it would be very helpful if you could allocate at least 45 minutes to (b) (5)

(b) (5)

Thank you in advance. We're really looking forward to getting this critical and exciting effort underway.

Best,
Nina

Subject: Scheduling DGB Discussion with S&T

Dear Rik,

I'm looking forward to our S&T 101 discussion tomorrow- and thanks so much for sending those interesting articles along this morning.

In addition to that conversation, as discussed at our last DGB Steering Group Meeting, we are writing to set up a discussion with your component to discuss your MDM-related lines of effort and governance structures.

The meeting will serve several purposes:

(b) (5)

These meetings—and the DGB writ large—will not interfere with components' operational authority. Ultimately, these discussions will inform the framework of the broader governance structure we will draft, adopt, and implement over the next several months.

(b)(6) will schedule these discussions; please work with him to find a 90-minute slot over the next two weeks when we can speak to you (if your schedule allows), your program staff, and lawyers. We recognize your schedules may not allow you to stay for the duration, however it would be very helpful if you could allocate at least 45 minutes to walk us through your lines of effort and governance structures, and in the second half of the meeting your program staff can take us through demos of tools or other such details.

Thank you in advance. We're really looking forward to getting this critical and exciting effort underway.

Best,
Nina

Hi Nina, Please see some initial feedback attached, and some may need follow up discussion along with our OGC colleagues.

Also, do we have a formal "roster" of Steering Group members to the Disinformation Governance Board? In the case of this document, what level of "sign off" are we looking for?

Thanks,

Kevin

Subject: Introducing our new Executive Director

Good afternoon –

We are thrilled to electronically introduce Steering Group members to the Disinformation Governance Board's new Executive Director, Nina Jankowicz. Nina is an expert on online disinformation and the author of How to Lose the Information War: Russia, Fake News, and the Future of Conflict. In addition to her scholarship on disinformation, she has advised the Ukrainian Foreign Ministry under the auspices of a Fulbright Public Policy Fellowship, overseen Russia and Belarus programs at the National Democratic Institute, and served as a Fellow at the Wilson Center.

Nina will join us at our next Steering Group meeting.

We will work with you to set up 1:1s for Nina with each Steering Group member so that Nina can learn about what you are working on and so that we can begin the governance work we discussed last week.

Expect to see meeting invites coming your way, and please join me in welcoming Nina.

Sam

Luis – thank you for this helpful information.

All – thank you for convening yesterday. As we discussed, please use this distribution list to share information on MDM related work. We want to ensure visibility and be available to support wherever needed.

Please do also let us know about any external engagement on MDM before it occurs – for visibility purposes.

On anything (b) (5) please ensure that (b)(6) is looped in.

Hope everyone can enjoy the weekend.

Good afternoon –

We are looking forward to convening this afternoon.

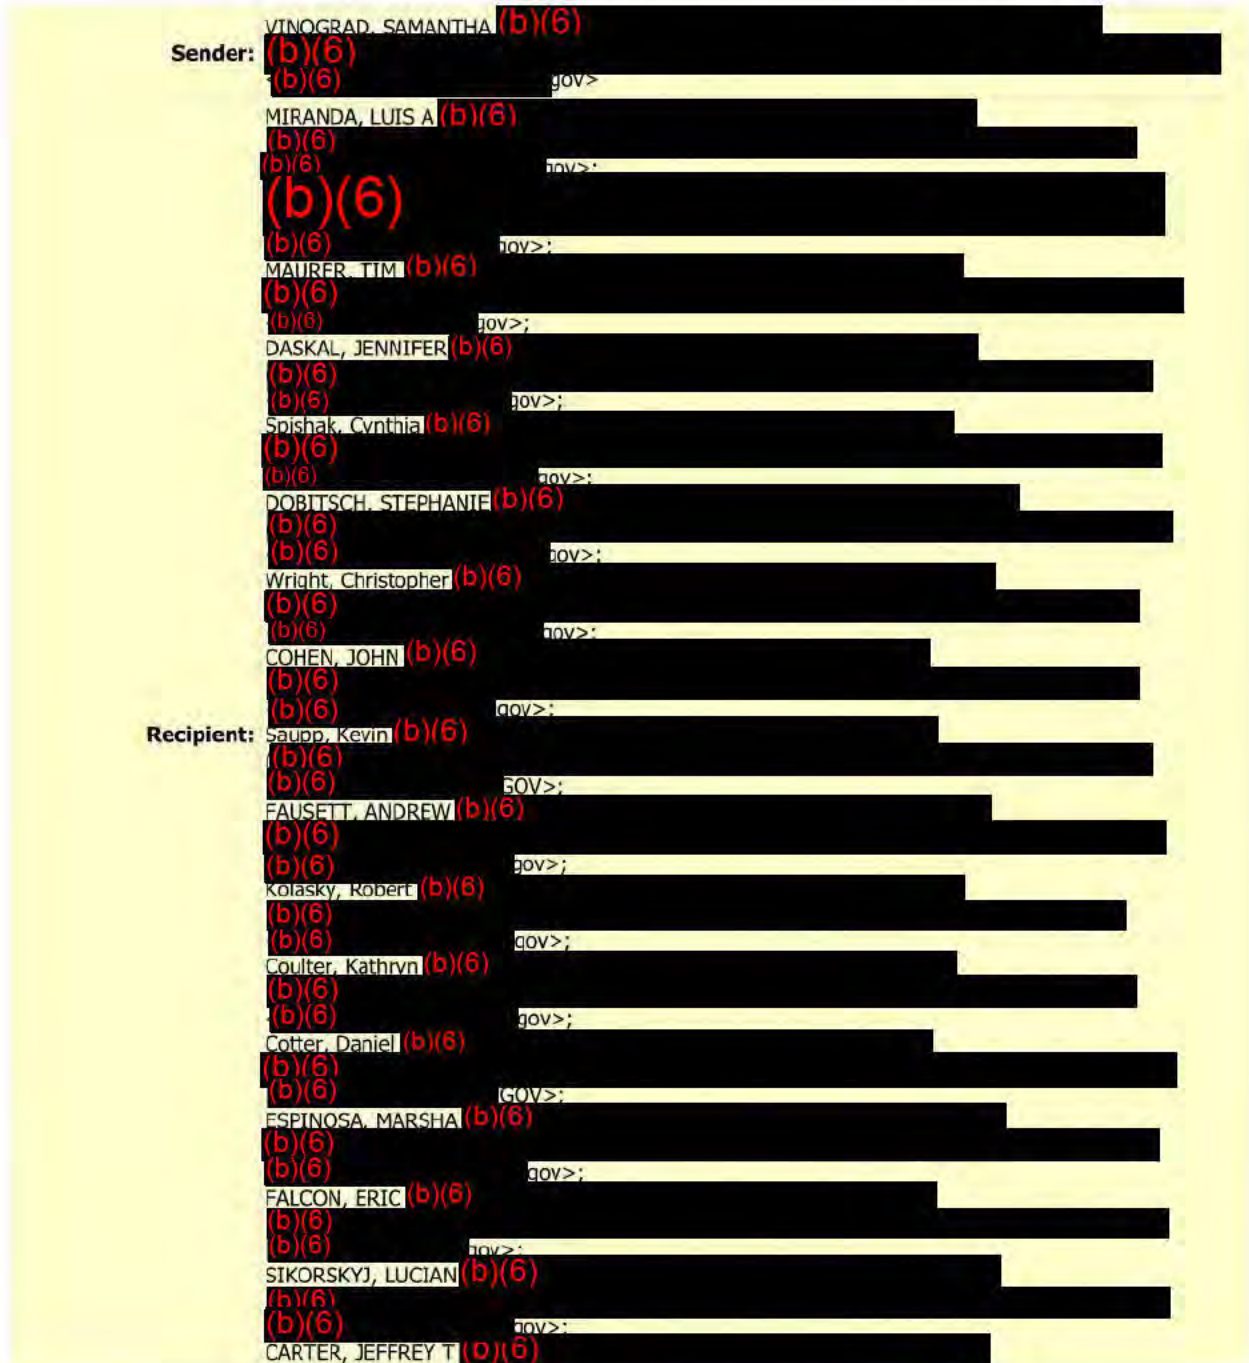

(b) (5)

For components who can't access the sharepoint please send relevant info to (b)(6) who is cc'ed above (thanks (b)(6)). We will circulate planned engagements to the group for visibility.

Finally, one of our primary objectives is to ensure visibility across MDM lines of effort. Please keep the steering group in the loop on your work on MDM – we are here to support each of your components/offices if needed and more generally benefit from enhanced visibility.

Thank you Ruth! To expand on that as well --

The RTQ and background material on the Board is currently going through clearance. The impetus for a public announcement here is the press story, which will be pitched following clearance. We will have an updated timeline following clearance as Ruth mentions below.

One update regarding materials, we are not going to make the background information on the Board public at this time. Therefore, let us know what if anything you need for notifications. For example, I spoke w/ Jason last night. OPE will do an ICYMI with the press story when it publishes.

Thanks very much Nina. We'll put pen to paper on a rollout strategy doc – will be best to have everything from all offices in one doc – and circle that soonest. Glad to see that there's overlap with our validator list in OPA and also some new opportunities for relationship building.

Thanks all for the meeting today! We're looking forward to getting the Board announced publicly early next week and supporting however we can.

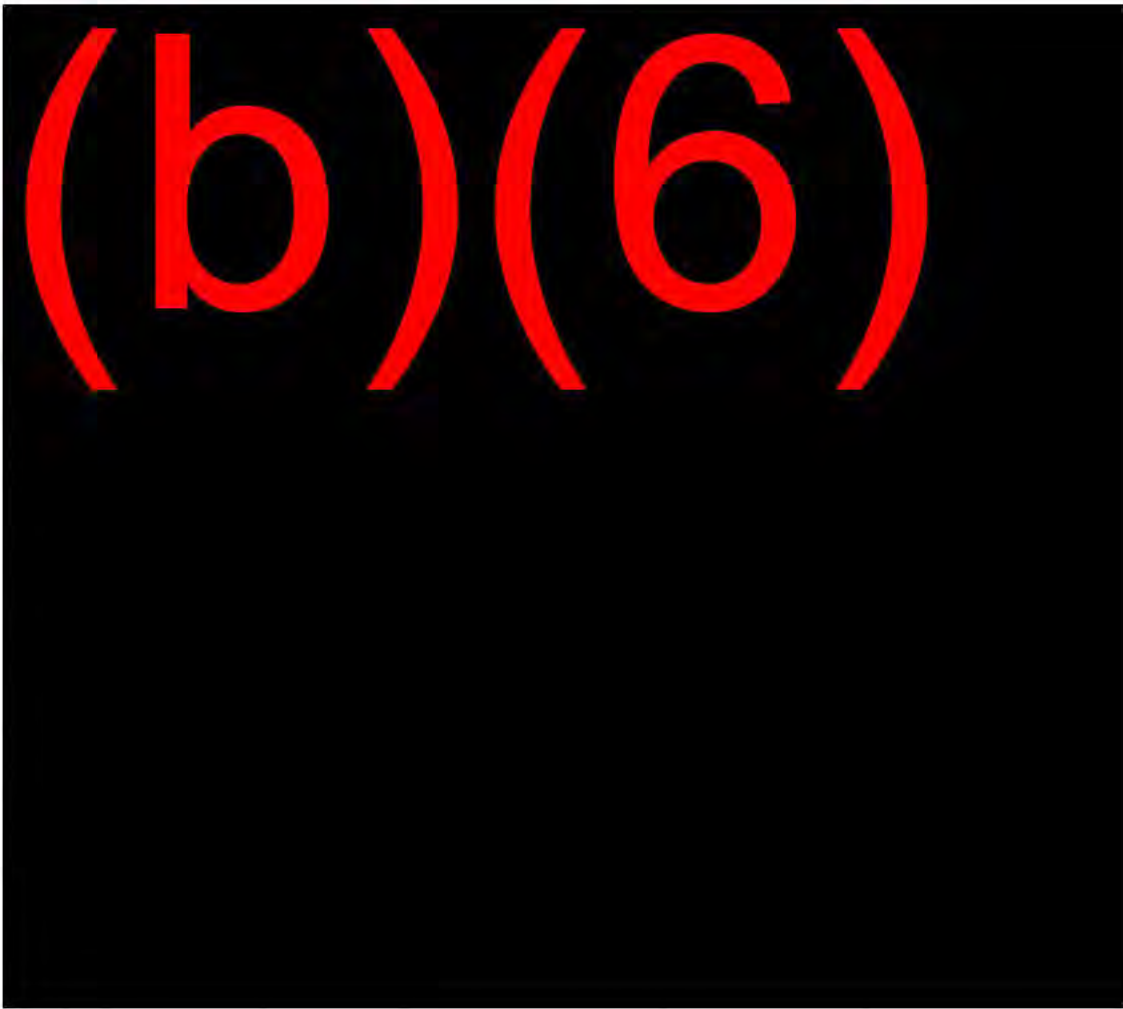

@WATERS, ERIN et al, as discussed, below is a list of validators with whom I have personal relationships. Happy to draw on these and cross-reference with colleagues in OPE based on your recommendations.

Let us know what else you need from us in preparation for the announcement.

OLA colleagues- happy to meet to discuss the Hill strategy at your convenience. I'm OOO Friday, but perhaps we could target a briefing on Thursday or Monday?

Dear Colleagues,

Sam and I met with Ricki last week and at her direction drafted this short document outlining the Disinformation Governance Board's efforts; we hope it can inform planning for the announcement.
docx icon DGB Brief 040522.docx

On the week of April 25, we plan to hold both our first Board Meeting and a roundtable with researchers (b) (5). As such, we would like to make the public announcement of the Board (and related Congressional/industry/civil society notifications) prior to those events.

Is it possible to meet tomorrow or Monday to discuss?

Thanks very much and hope you are all able to enjoy a bit of the beautiful weather.

Best

Dear Colleagues,

For those of you I haven't yet been introduced to, I'm the new Executive Director for the Disinformation Governance Board.

As preparation for the public announcement of the Board's existence, Ricki Seidman asked us to prepare the following brief explaining (1) the Board's purpose and (2) some of the great work the Board is currently supporting/plans to support in the coming months, including equities you are involved in.

This short document will serve as the springboard for OPA as they engage with a media outlet to announce the Board. In conjunction with that effort, we will be notifying Congressional and private sector stakeholders about the Board's existence and plans.

We would welcome your feedback, comments, and edits, on the paragraphs relevant to your equities, ideally by 10am tomorrow (Friday).

Thanks so much for your support- we are excited to get the Board announced publicly! Please reach out with any questions.

Subject: RE: Scheduling Discussion with DGB on I&A Activities

Dear I&A Colleagues,

Hope you are well. I am following up on a few action items related to the DGB.

1. • Please fill out this form regarding I&A's Board and Steering Group representatives and alternates asap; it will assist us with planning our first full Board meeting in April.
2. • We're looking forward to our discussion with you about your MDM lines of effort and governance structures for our DGB Capabilities Review. Can you provide a few 45-60 minute slots to (b)(6) so we can meet before the end of the month?

Thanks so much- as always, please don't hesitate to get in touch if you have questions or concerns.

Nina

Subject: Review Request: Disinfo Gov Board Public Announcement Brief

Dear Colleagues,

For those of you I haven't yet been introduced to, I'm the new Executive Director for the Disinformation Governance Board.

As preparation for the public announcement of the Board's existence, Ricki Seidman asked us to prepare the following brief explaining (1) the Board's purpose and (2) some of the great work the Board is currently supporting/plans to support in the coming months, including equities you are involved in.

This short document will serve as the springboard for OPA as they engage with a media outlet to announce the Board. In conjunction with that effort, we will be notifying Congressional and private sector stakeholders about the Board's existence and plans.

We would welcome your feedback, comments, and edits, on the paragraphs relevant to your equities, ideally by 10am tomorrow (Friday).

Thanks so much for your support- we are excited to get the Board announced publicly! Please reach out with any questions.

Best
Nina

If that's a possibility let me know what you need from me/us (if anything) to get us into the building.

Hi all,

This email serves as a reminder that we are hoping to get short briefs (~5 mins) from your teams on your MDM lines of effort and governance structures at upcoming Steering Group meetings. These briefs are meant to serve to get components that are a bit less advanced with their MDM activities thinking about the types of programs and governance structures they might implement.

The notional schedule is as follows, but let me know if you'd like to make a change:

March 25: I&A and CISA

April 1: CP3

Please let me know if you have any questions- looking forward to hearing from you.

Hi Bob,

Hello! I'm the new ED for the Disinformation Governance Board. Sam Vinograd suggested we link up on MDM-related matters and CISA's identification/analysis work.

Do you have some time in the next few days to sync up? My schedule is still quite flexible and I'm sure you have many demands on your time, so let me know what might work best for you.

Enjoy the weekend,

Dear Luis and CBP Colleagues,

As discussed at our last DGB Steering Group Meeting, we are writing to set up a discussion with your component to discuss your MDM-related lines of effort and governance structures.

The meeting will serve several purposes:

(b) (5)

These meetings—and the DGB writ large—will not interfere with components' operational authority. Ultimately, these discussions will inform the framework of the broader governance structure we will draft, adopt, and implement over the next several months.

(b)(6) will schedule these discussions; please work with him to find a 90-minute slot over the next two weeks when we can speak to you (if your schedule allows), your program staff, and lawyers. We recognize your schedules may not allow you to stay for the duration, however it would be very helpful if you could allocate at least 45 minutes to walk us through your lines of effort and governance structures, and in the second half of the meeting your program staff can take us through demos of tools or other such details.

Thank you in advance. We're really looking forward to getting this critical and exciting effort underway.

Best,
Nina

The Honorable Jen Easterly
Director
Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency
Department of Homeland Security
Washington, DC 20023

Dear Director Easterly,

I write to express concern and request additional information about the Disinformation Governance Board (the Board) reportedly being stood up within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). DHS Secretary Mayorkas mentioned this new Board in passing last week and the Department did not provide any additional details.<sup>1</sup> I am deeply concerned about the lack of information provided to Congress and, as the lead House Republican tasked with overseeing the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA), I request information about CISA's involvement with the Board.

As you know, CISA's mission is vast—you are expected to protect U.S. critical infrastructure from a wide range of cyber and physical threats. Part of that mission includes building resilience to Mis-, Dis-, and Malinformation (MDM)<sup>2</sup>. CISA's MDM team is charged with protecting election and critical infrastructure from the threats of foreign influence. It is a national imperative to prevent foreign threat actors from using MDM campaigns to cause chaos, confusion, and division in the United States. CISA must continue to strive to prevent malign actors from interfering with and undermining our democratic institutions.

In accordance with our efforts to protect our democratic institutions, I have serious privacy and civil liberty concerns with this newly proposed Board. CISA's own website states, "CISA's publication of information materials about [disinformation] are intended for public awareness, and are not intended to restrict, diminish, or demean any person's right to hold, express, or publish any opinion or belief, including opinions or beliefs that align with those of a foreign government, are expressed by a foreign government-backed campaign, or dissent from the majority."<sup>3</sup> It is not clear that this new Board has the same intentions.

COMMITTEE ON SMALL BUSINESS

In Secretary Mayorkas' comments on the Board, he mentioned you by name, saying you are helping to lead DHS efforts in this space.<sup>4</sup> I have concerns the Secretary is tarnishing CISA's reputation in this space and harming efforts that are already underway by introducing a new layer of bureaucracy that is justifiably causing panic among Americans about the government encroaching on their privacy.

I also have concerns about the lack of Congressional notification about the Board, the lack of information about the Board's mission, the lack of clarity about CISA's involvement, and the lack of certainty about privacy and civil liberty protections for American citizens. As such, I respectfully request answers to the following:

1. What is CISA's mission set when it comes to MDM?
2. What is the mission set of the Disinformation Governance Board?
3. Where will these missions intersect? How will CISA engage with and participate in the Board?
4. How will CISA ensure its mission is not encroached upon, and the Board appropriately respects Americans' privacy and civil liberties, just as CISA has?
5. How do DHS and CISA plan to engage with Congress to ensure the appropriate Committees are notified of such announcements in the future?

Sincerely,

ANDREW R. GARBARINO
Ranking Member
Subcommittee on Cybersecurity,
Infrastructure Protection, and Innovation

Subject: FW: DGB Steering Group Meeting Today, 4pm

Good evening, Brian and Jim. Just some internal notes regarding the Fact Sheet linked below. These are for internal CRCL purposes, and are based on my own, quick review.

BLUF: The document generally describes current activities that DHS undertakes related to Disinformation, in a way that underlines DHS's authorities in these areas.

The document focuses on three examples:

1. • CBP countering TCO disinformation that encourages human trafficking and related crimes;
2. • FEMA work to counter disinformation during local or national emergencies (such as a hurricane), where such disinformation may harm individuals; and
3. • CISA working with technology stakeholders to combat disinformation harms to US critical infrastructure, including Russian disinformation.

The fact sheet also establishes three new duties for DHS:

1. • Quarterly reports to congress on the work of the DGB (which is referenced by name);
2. • S1 will request that the Homeland Security Advisory Council (HSAC) make recommendations for combating disinformation, in an effort co-lead by HSAC co-chair Jamie Gorelick and HSAC Member (and former S1) Michael Chertoff; and
3. • DHS will explore additional ways to enhance the public's trust.

CRCL is listed as a member organization of the DBG.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Respectfully,
K
