FEBRUARY SOCIAL TOOLKIT

“The God who gave us life gave us liberty at the same time.”

The Pursuit of Happiness...

February continues our yearlong celebration of America’s 250th anniversary by lifting up a timeless truth: free people pursue happiness by living with purpose, responsibility, and opportunity.

From the Founding era to today, Americans have understood happiness not as comfort or entitlement, but as the freedom to build a life—through work, faith, family, service, and self-government.

This month we invite Americans to reflect on their own American Dream story and share what the pursuit of happiness looks like in their lives today.

Below you’ll find social media prompts, graphics, and action items to help amplify our message, so you can take small but meaningful steps to advance freedom and opportunity in your own community.

Key Themes for February:

Community Engagement: Share your American Dream story. <https://a250toolkit.com/feb-share-story>

Historical Reference:

The Declaration of Independence (1776) — where the pursuit of happiness is recognized as a natural right, grounded in liberty, moral agency, and self-governance.

Call to Action:

Invite Americans to reflect on and share how freedom has shaped their opportunity—and how they pursue happiness through responsibility, perseverance, and purpose.

Participants are encouraged to:

- Reflect on what happiness and opportunity mean in their lives
- Share a digital American Dream card
- Engage with stories of notable Americans who pursued happiness through character and conviction
